Track Project!

Notes for Understanding Results Table

Administrators.

Terry Barton

1. General Info

- The first column is "ID", which is a number assigned to track the individual within the project.
- The "Name" column is intended to list the "Earliest Known Ancestor" - which we prefer. If we can't find this in the field in "Preferences" or through a pedigree, we shorten the first names to initials. (Some admins will state "Not Provided" when there is no Earliest Known Ancestor)

2. Haplogroups (abbreviated as "Haplo" in the Results table):

- A Green Haplogroup result was determined by actual testing - with a SNP test¹ (pronounced "snip")
- A Red Haplogroup result has been estimated by FTDNA¹ - using their internal database.
- A Black Haplogroup estimate was determined by some other estimating procedure
- Sometimes, there is no haplogroup¹ estimate - which is shown with a "-". In those cases, FTDNA will (at their expense -

3. Lineage:

- A Lineage is "declared" when two men are matching 23/25 or better. A "Lineage" is a genetic family who share a "recent" common ancestor. The men in the Lineage "match".
- Results shown together in a color group and assigned to a Lineage share a "recent" common ancestor - generally since the advent of surnames (c1100) and probably in the last 2-400 years - or even less. The common ancestor could be the earliest ancestor on the oldest pedigree or could have lived as little as one generation earlier - or could have lived centuries earlier than any of the known ancestors.
- The coloration of a Lineage is simply to show matching. A specific color has no meaning - other than showing the match.

4. Mutations:

- Mutations from the typical result (which is probably the haplotype¹ of the common ancestor) are shown in a contrasting color.
- Where the mutation¹ is matching a mutation from another result within the Lineage, the match likely indicates a more recent shared common ancestor (or a "branch" within the Lineage.) - as the two men probably both inherited the mutation from a recent common ancestor.
- Mutations with no match have no significance at this time- but may be useful at some future date.

DEATHS.

Miss Fisher and John Benson Married

At a very pretty wedding ceremony at the home of Mrs. Anna R. Fisher, her niece, Miss Gladys Fisher, became the bride of John Benson of Mare Island, on Saturday.

Miss Fisher is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. August Fisher of Dixon, but for the past year or so has made her home with her aunt in this city, where she is the most popular among the younger girls. The groom is in the employ of the government. After the ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. Thos. A. Boyer of the First Christian Church, a wedding breakfast was served, after which the young couple took their departure on a trip down the coast. They will make their home at Vallejo.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Joy, July 8, a daughter.

WEDDINGS

Cards have been received in Dixon announcing the wedding of Wm. Collins of this place to Miss Katherine Dore of Waverly, Kansas, on Tuesday, July 12. They will be at home to their friends after August 1, in the new bungalow which Mr Collins erected on his ranch east of Dixon a few months ago. Mr. Collins was foreman of the H. R. Timm dairy for several years and a trustworthy man in every respect. He placed his earnings in a tract of land, part of which he set out to trees. A few months ago he erected a set of buildings, and in a short time will have one of the neatest places in the community.

By one of the Sacramento papers we note the marriage of W. L. Thomas and Miss Daisy Pearl Blum, both of Dixon. Thomas & Blum came down from Placerville a couple of years ago and engaged in the rice growing business north west of Dixon. They are highly regarded by their neighbors. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas will continue to make their home near Dixon.

Frank Raymond Norton is now the youngest member of the Red Cross, having been signed up before he was a week old. Who can beat it?

Mrs. S. R. Fountain has been in Berkeley to welcome a little son at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lebrick.

John Casey died at the hospital in San Francisco during the forenoon of Sunday. Pneumonia is said to have been the cause, but shock from an operation must have the body, and interment was in the Dixon cemetery.

Mr. Casey was nearly 74 years of age. His wife died several years ago, and he is survived by four children, James of San Francisco, Charles of Richmond, Mrs. Miller of Piedmont, and Mrs Jordan of Oakland.

The deceased was a native of Ireland, who came to the far West when a young man about fifty years ago he came to Dixon, moving over from old Silveyville and bought from Wm. Johnson a blacksmith shop located on the spot now occupied by G. D. Schulze. He was a hard worker, the clang of his anvil being heard early and late. It took a strong, active man to keep up with him, tho he was not large of stature. He put his profits into land, of which he held considerable, including town property. Until his death he occupied his house just east of the high school. He was a man who was always straightforward in all his dealings, respected by everyone, and mourned by many.

F. Atkinson Married

Forest Atkinson stole a march on his friends, and for the second time did the best thing that he ever could for himself, when he was married on Thursday of last week. His bride is Mrs. Dewitt, of San Francisco, a relative of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bulkley, with whom she had been staying. The wedding took place in Sacramento. Mr. Atkinson is one of the hard-working and well-to-do farmers of Dixon, where his many friends gave him hearty congratulations on his first visit to town. Mr. Atkinson's two sons are in the Army, one in France and the other at Camp Lewis.

Navy Yard Employee Weds Cordelia Girl

Last Saturday at 12:30 o'clock the ceremony was performed which united in marriage Arthur E. Mauncher, an electrician employed at the Mare Island Navy Yard, and Miss Marguerite Goosen, a well known young woman from Cordelia. The newlyweds have departed for a two weeks' tour of the south.—Vallejo News.

Mrs. McCann returned, the first of the week, from San Francisco, where she was called on account of the death of her brother, Frank Connelly.

Several Weddings

Jack Leonard, night marshal, and Miss Teresa Geithle were married at Sacramento the first of the week and now occupy apartments in the Palace building. Both are well known thruout the community and have been receiving many congratulations.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Craig's eldest daughter, Theresa, who was granted a decree of divorce from Stanley Joy in Judge Morgan's court, San Francisco, was married on Sept. 11 to Joseph M. Ramus of San Francisco.

Miss May Rayn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Rayn, and Augustus Martin were married in Sacramento, Sunday. Martin was formerly in the employ of the Marvin garage. They have gone to Arbuckle for a visit.

Carl Aye and Miss Mary Hruska were married by Reverend P. J. O'Connor on Sunday. Carl Aye is one of the indutrious employes of the Timm Dairy, and the young woman came here from San Francisco a year ago.

WEDDING OF MISS CURREY

San Francisco—The marriage of Miss Laura Currey and Ensign Andrew S. Heilbron was solemnized at a beautiful ceremony at 4 o'clock, Wednesday, at the home of the bride's uncle, Spencer Buckbee, in Clay street.

The marriage service was read by Reverend Harvey Hansen of Trinity Episcopal Church. The ceremony took place in the drawing room of the house, which was beautifully decorated with pink autumn flowers of every variety, combined with greenery and potted palms. Pink hydrangeas were used in profusion, also huge pink dahlias and pink roses.

The bride was a charming picture in her frock of white georgette daintily beaded. The skirt was ankle length and the graceful sleeves were cut in the fashionable three-quarter style. A long tulle veil made a graceful train to the costume, and was bound to the coiffure with a band of pearls. Miss Currey carried a shower bouquet of white butterfly orchids.

Mrs. Blaine Rogers of Fresno was matron of honor. Miss Margaret Buckbee, the bride's cousin, and Miss Mary Heilbron, the Reverend Father,

I am writing to you in hope that maybe you can help me with my family Genealogy. My grandfather was Christen in your Church in the year 1899.

His parents were Charles A. Joy and Annie Rebecca Francis. The problem I have come across is about the parents of Annie Francis. I have found the graves of what I believe to be her parents in the cemetery in Rio Vista. Believe they are Antone Francis born 1826 and died 1906, mother Mary born 1836 and died 1904.

I thought maybe your Church might have some records on this people. As I have found out working with Genealogy that Churches are an excellent source of information.

Truly yours,

Dear Ms. Horn,

In reply to your letter of April 13, 1978, I can find no record of Mary or Samuel Joy in our Cemetery records. This does not mean that they are not burried here as we have some 500 graves that we do not know who they are.

Warren Joy died in 1942 and is burried here.

His son and a duaghter live in grand Junction and they may be able to help you.

The last address we have for them is:

Hillside Cemetery is located about 1/2 mile southeast of the town of Saguache on Cemetery Road. To get to Hillside, turn east on Pitkin Avenue and drive approximately 7 blocks, turn left, go one block then turn right at the stop sign. Follow the county road approximately 1/2 mile to the cemetery entrance.

There are no grave sites in Blocks A, C, D, K, L, and O.
So far as I can determine there are no other blocks beyond Block Q.

We have read every tombstone at Hillside. There are many, many graves simply marked with a metal cross. Those whose names were included in the Secretary's records have been included in our listing even though we couldn't find an actual tombstone.

Hello ladies!

Attached are the photos of the graves of Samuel C. and Mary Boggs Joy's daughters Juliette Joy Montieth (and her husband, William Robert Montieth) and Lorena Marshall (and her son John Marshall).

These graves were right in back of each other and about 5 graves down from Warren Joy's grave. I noticed that there are two unmarked graves directly in back of Lorena Joy Marshall's grave. Where these two graves are located made me wonder if these were Samuel C. Joy and Mary Bogg Joy's graves. I will have to contact the Cox Family and see if these graves are on their listing, and are identified or not.

I am sorry to report that I have found no records yet. Both the Courthouse and newspaper have donated all of their records from the 1800s and early 1900s to other counties over the years and/or lost them. It seems like Adams State College, the Denver Historical Society, the Del Norte library and private parties have ended up with most of their records and they really don't know who has what or for what years. Since my sister is working on getting a website put together for Saguache County, she wants to go to each of these archives and get lists of which ones have what records for what years. It is very sad that it seems that other than the Saguache Museum and a small collection that their library has, Saguache county has lost most of their history over the years.

The owner of the Saguache Crescent made a copy of my genealogy report of the Joys and Slane and is going to look through his father's private collection of newspapers and see if he can find any obituaries or mention of any of our Joys or Slanes. It is going to take awhile for him to get back to me.

Two of the local men in town told me that there are still several Joys and Slanes left in Saguache. So I am going to contact those Joys and Slanes to see what they can tell me. Maybe they will have photos of their ancestors!

For now, I am going to write an article about the "Search for Lorena", telling what we know so far, the theories and about my experience looking for proof of her maiden name and proof of parentage for the October newsletter. Then, as more information comes forward I add updates to the newsletter and will send any records, information or photos to you two ladies.

Hugs to you both,
Shamaya

Hillside Cemetery is located about 1/2 mile southeast of the town of Saguache on Cemetery Road. To get to Hillside, turn east on Pitkin Avenue and drive approximately 7 blocks, turn left, go one block then turn right at the stop sign. Follow the county road approximately 1/2 mile to the cemetery entrance.

There are no grave sites in Blocks A, C, D, K, L, and O.
 So far as I can determine there are no other blocks beyond Block Q.

We have read every tombstone at Hillside. There are many, many graves simply marked with a metal cross. Those whose names were included in the Secretary's records have been included in our listing even though we couldn't find an actual tombstone.

INDEX

The numbers following each name represent, in order, the line number, the original page number, and the page number of this printed copy. Since the "people of colour" (in the words of the census enumerator) were left out, and we have no names for them, the next best is done. They are listed first, as referred to in the census text.

In the main, I have indexed exactly what the census enumerator wrote. If it is clear what name the enumerator meant, that will be the only entry. If deciphering of the handwriting is questionable, variations may also be in the index. To save space, the last letters are left off of some township names. An example of what is listed in each column is printed only once for reference, at the beginning.

* indicates variations. + indicates corrections.

y. Claus Eggert, Hans Roh- and wife, H. B. Robben and Joe Knowles, of Sacramento. The bride is a very popular and active girl in her residential district. The groom is a Dixon born and reared here, graduated from the high school, then to business college, and two years ago went into the grocery business in this place. He is well known through this part of the state for his baseball ability. He has several home runs to his credit, but the one on the Fourth was the best that he ever made.

James Moynihan and Miss Rose Porter, both of this vicinity, were married, Wednesday morning, in Oakland, only the immediate relatives of the bride and groom being present. A wedding breakfast was spread at Key Route Inn, after which they took the train for Trip to the Yosemite. The bride is the daughter of the late Chas. Porter, and graduated from the Chico Normal school, since which time she has taught school in one of the bay towns. The groom is one of the sons of Mr. and Mrs. J. Moynihan, of this place, and is well known for his integrity and industry. Mr. and Mrs. Moynihan will make their home on the ranch southwest of Dixon. Those in attendance from Dixon were the parents of the groom, J. W. Moynihan and wife, Jerry Moynihan and wife, Robert and George Moynihan.

Elmer, son of Mrs. Lila Brown, of Binghamton, and Miss Remington, who taught the Binghamton school, were married in Oakland, Saturday evening of last week. They left on a trip to Tahoe, after which they will return to the Brown ranch south of this place, where the young man will be in charge. Elmer is a hustling and popular young man and won for his wife a most estimable young lady.

Doctor Floyd B. Rice, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Rice of this place, and Miss Edna Brink were married, Wednesday of last week, at the parsonage of the First Presbyterian church in San Francisco. Mrs. Rice, Miss Elma, Master Jack and the parents of the bride from Biggs, were present at the wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Rice left for San Diego and will be at home in Fresno where the Doctor has dental offices. The bride is a graduate of Chico Normal school week to attend the funeral of their aged father, who died on Sunday. All the sons and daughters of deceased, numbering ten, were present. The deceased was 85 years old, and highly respected thruout that part of the state. An interesting item of news brought back was that another girl had been born to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shumann.

A girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Unnewehr, Saturday of last week.

Clarence Joy of Dixon and Miss Grace Venning of Suisun, formerly of Vallejo, were married in Sacramento, Friday, Sept. 8. The groom is the second son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Joy, well known ranchers of this part of the county. The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Venning, fruit ranchers of Suisun valley.

At the home of her parent, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hutton, Miss Willow Hutton was married to Philip B. Taylor at noon of Friday by the Reverend S. G. Wilson. The ceremony was performed according to the ritual of the Episcopal Church beneath a beautiful bower of asparagus fern and chrysanthemums. The bride, prettily gowned in white and carrying a bouquet of roses and maidenhair fern, was unattended. The wedding march was played by Mrs. L. L. Hyde, a sister of the bride. After the wedding dinner Mr. and Mrs. Taylor jumped into an automobile and fled to Suisun to take the train for San Francisco and a trip to southern California. But friends were equal to the occasion and when the wedding car stopped in front of the hotel it was pocketed by an auto driving in front and another behind, the occupants throwing rice to their hearts content. Mr. and Mrs. Taylor will make their home in Dixon.

The bride is a Dixon girl, graduated from the high school and the Normal at San Jose, afterwards teaching at the grammar school, and has always been popular. The groom attended the University and was a member of one of the fraternal societies. He is a most industrious young man and has charge of Hutton Bros' dairy.

Present at the wedding besides the parents of the bride were: Mr. and Mrs. Taylor from Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Hyde, Doctor and Mrs. A. S. Almeida, Mr. Eugene Warner and Misses

Mrs. Gretchen Timm, wife of Hans Timm, who resides six miles east of Dixon, passed away late Monday afternoon. She had been ill for some time as the result of a cold contracted while on a visit to Dutch Flat, her condition was apparently improving. She was sitting in a chair knitting when she suddenly asked to be moved to her bed and called for her husband. Those in the house were quickly assembled and clasping her husband's hand as she did 60 years ago when they were joined in wedlock, the good woman passed serenely away into the shadows.

Besides her husband, now 84 years old, Mrs. Timm leaves six children, Mrs. Louis Faller of Dutch Flat, Mrs. Henry Higgins of Dixon, Mrs. C. M. Kirby of Dixon, Mrs. Forck of Tacoma, Miss Cecelia and Chas. Timm of Dixon. Two children died in infancy and Peter and H. W. died during the past two years. There are several grandchildren.

Funeral services were held at the house Thursday afternoon and interment was in Dixon cemetery.

Deceased was a native of Holstein, Germany. She came to Davenport, Iowa, in 1853 and was married three years later to Hans Timm, beginning a union which lasted faithfully and happily for sixty years, a term of wedlock which comes with seemingly more and more rarity in this country. In 1864 Mr. and Mrs. Timm came to California and settled on the ranch east of Dixon which they continuously resided on and where was born to them an excellent family of sons and daughters, and where by frugality and industry prosperity was reaped from the soil.

Mrs. Timm was a typical home woman, a faithful companion to her husband, devoted to her children, true to her friends, one whose sanctuary was the home, and with an abiding trust in an all-provident God.

Miss Firchow, daughter of H. Firchow who resides near Putah creek, was married last week to Mr. H. Behl, who came out from Nebraska for the occasion and left with his bride shortly afterwards for the sunflower state.

Dear Zandra:

Thank you for the Morgan Co. marriages. They do a lot towards filling in the blanks. Most I have managed to place.

Almeda A./Sargent Beazley - not sure, but could be Almelia, dau. of William and Lucetta on 1850 census, Morgan Co.

Elizabeth Jane/Augustine Level - I have a xerox copy of the original marriage record of Eliza Ann Joy and Augustine Lovell, m 24 Oct 1852. She, the dau of James and Mary (Law) Joy. Date differs a bit as does the names, but think it same people.

Ellis/Melissa Murphy - Ellis son of Absalom

Harrison/Susan A. Thomas - Harrison son of John and Mary (Ellis) Joy. He was killed in Civil War.

Jerusha/John Williams - Jerusha dau of John and Mary (Ellis) Joy. On 1850 census Morgan Co.

John F./Malenium Andrews - John Ferris Joy son of Absalom

Martha J/John L. Lefever - not known - James and Mary (Law) Joy had a Martha M. b 31 Jan 1845.

Mary E/Leander Duffy - not known

Mary Jane/Eli Alderman - dau of ~~Absalom~~ James and Mary (Law) Joy.

Matilda/William Mendenhall - dau of Absalom.

Melissa Ann/John Roberts - dau of Absalom.

Sally/William Murphy - this must be Sarah, dau of Absalom.

Sarah Emily/William Cook - dau of James and Mary (Law) Joy. I have Sarah C. but this could be an error in transcribing the Bible records.

Vincent/Catherine Ballard - Vincent son of Absalom. Past research gives marriage of Vincent/Elizabeth E. Wachtell 23 Dec 1865 at Savannah, Mo. Ina Wachtell also told of Vincent's marriage to her father's half-sister. Must have married twice.

I had none of these marriages and only partial names of some of the spouses, so you see, you really did add a good deal. I was very happy to get them.

The C. in Samuel's name certainly could stand for Carpenter. They did a lot of naming their children in this way at that time.

Thank you for sharing your research and I hope I have something new to share some time.

Sincerely,

Jane Hough

Dear Zandra:

I'm glad to see you are still digging away at the Joy family history. It would seem that Rebecca (Joy) Danford was most certainly the daughter of John and sister of Absalom, James etc. The death date, 1879, does not quite agree with Obituary of John, 1872, but all else agrees: Wheeling, W.V., the oil in Morgan Co., Ohio and place of death as Nodaway Co., MO.

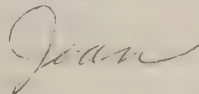

I can't remember if I sent the Belmont Co., Ohio marriages to you or not. If not, here they are. I'm inclined to believe this John Jay is our John Joy. It's easy to mistake an a for an o or vice versa. I note also a Danford marriage here. And see this---- I found in Pickaway Co., Ohio, 1836, Partition Records. Children of Isaac Williams: Isaac, Eliza Ann, Sarah, John, James, Vincent, and Rebecca. Children of Edward Williams: Vincent, Edward, Sarah, Mary, William S., Josephine, And Elizabeth. In Montgomery Co., Ohio- Guardianships, 1819, children of John Williams: John, Nathaniel, William, Matilda, and Ellis. Just look how many of these names also appear in the Joy family. Most of them as children of Absalom. Seems too much to mean nothing.

This is all guess work but thought you might be interested.

I've done little on the Joy family, or any other, for that matter. I did have a bit of luck on some connecting lines of McMinderes, Dehoney, Gatewood and Vawter. After several years of getting nowhere, I found others that have worked on these lines and they were willing to share.

Thank you for thinking of me. I'm always glad to hear ^{ar} from you, and I'll let you know if I learn anything new about the Joys.

Sincerely,

Jean R. Hough

BELMONT COUNTY, OHIO MARRIAGE RECORDS

1801 - 1802 - 1803

A PRICELESS FIND

The Cleveland Pain Dealer reported this discovery in a pre-Thanks-giving issue shortly after the records were discovered. I immediately wrote to the Probate Court of Belmont County for a copy of the records to share with my subscribers. They kindly forwarded a copy to me. The records were accidentally uncovered by a clerk in the court house while searching through Deed Boods. Someone in 1842 copied the original licenses into Deed Book "A" which may be found in the County Recorder's office, St. Clairsville, Ohio.

These records copied and discovered by Mrs. M. F. Ochsenbein, clerk at the Belmont County Court House in town of St. Clairsville, Ohio. They were termed priceless by Belmont Probate Court Judge Harry L. Albright.

I may have sent this to you before. Could this be our John Jay? Time and place are right,

1. The first part of the paper is devoted to a general discussion of the problem of the existence of solutions of the system of equations (1) for arbitrary values of the parameters α and β . It is shown that the system has solutions for all values of the parameters α and β if the function $f(x)$ is continuous and has a bounded derivative.

2. In the second part of the paper the problem of the existence of solutions of the system of equations (1) for arbitrary values of the parameters α and β is solved. It is shown that the system has solutions for all values of the parameters α and β if the function $f(x)$ is continuous and has a bounded derivative.

3. In the third part of the paper the problem of the existence of solutions of the system of equations (1) for arbitrary values of the parameters α and β is solved. It is shown that the system has solutions for all values of the parameters α and β if the function $f(x)$ is continuous and has a bounded derivative.

4. In the fourth part of the paper the problem of the existence of solutions of the system of equations (1) for arbitrary values of the parameters α and β is solved. It is shown that the system has solutions for all values of the parameters α and β if the function $f(x)$ is continuous and has a bounded derivative.

5. In the fifth part of the paper the problem of the existence of solutions of the system of equations (1) for arbitrary values of the parameters α and β is solved. It is shown that the system has solutions for all values of the parameters α and β if the function $f(x)$ is continuous and has a bounded derivative.

6. In the sixth part of the paper the problem of the existence of solutions of the system of equations (1) for arbitrary values of the parameters α and β is solved. It is shown that the system has solutions for all values of the parameters α and β if the function $f(x)$ is continuous and has a bounded derivative.

7. In the seventh part of the paper the problem of the existence of solutions of the system of equations (1) for arbitrary values of the parameters α and β is solved. It is shown that the system has solutions for all values of the parameters α and β if the function $f(x)$ is continuous and has a bounded derivative.

MARSHALL—JOY—On the 4th of July, 1879, at Andrew Slane's residence, near Saguache, by Judge W. B. Pelton, TREBEAU MARSHALL and LORENA JOY, both of Saguache.

May the joy that the bridegroom has received, by his espousal, never grow less, and may the bride never regret that she has bestowed her joy upon The-beau, is the wish of the CHRONICLE.

my apologies for not getting back to you sooner or staying on task with your genealogy requests.

Went to the courthouse searching through their indexes on Warren JOY, Lorena MARSHALL, Juliette MONTIETH or Lorena SLANE. Nothing specific could be found for these individuals in the death, delayed birth or marriage indexes.

Searched for the surnames in all indexes - no matter what the given name was. This is what I discovered:

James Dudley JOY dec'd 24Aug1987.
Orinnie Pearl JOY dec'd 26Jul1956

Through website searches in CO Cemetery indexing project for Hillside Cemetery - Located that Orinne P. JOY tombstone reads 1872-1956; Warren S. JOY 1865-1942 [you gave me 5 May 1942].

Continued searching Hillside Cemetery index. For your Lorena SLANE tombstone reads: Died 4 Feb 1882, age 56 y 11m 10 days, in memory of...wife of Andrew SLANE. Then 3 SLANE tombstones are next to hers: Lindan SLANE 1886-1896; Mattie Taylor SLANE 1865-1932 [indexer placed in parathesis: Danny's wife] then finally Ruth SLANE 1898-1938. There is also a Gertie SLANE with dates 1866-1901 buried in Hillside Cemetery.

Lorena MARSHALL tombstone reads 1857-1937. Next to her is a John MARSHALL 23 Apr 1881 - 26 Jul 1954.

Juliette MONTEITH tombstone 1852-1933 next to her is William Robert MONTEITH 1851-1932.

The next thing I will do is ask the editor of the weekly Saguache Crescent to see if he has obituaries about these individuals. For the Lorena SLANE d. 4 Feb 1882 I will see what historical colorado digitization project lists - if anything. Will also give Dean this 1882 date just in case he has something in his files.

...AND that's a report to you about what I've located through courthouse records so far.

Mr. Rehm was a young man of twenty-seven when, in 1905, he landed in the harbor of New York, a stranger to the language and customs of the country which he had selected for his future home. Youth and ambition were in his favor and these apparent obstacles proved no bar to his progress. Instead of lingering in the east he came during the same year to Woodland, Yolo county, Cal., where at that time he was not able to secure work at his trade, but hearing of an opportunity at Sacramento he went to that city. With the means which he had been able to accumulate through one year of hard work and frugal living he returned to Woodland and opened a business of his own. The beginning was necessarily small and unpretentious, and would hardly be recognized in the fine modern plant at No. 422 Main street which has been made possible by the push and energy of the proprietor. Besides dispensing the wholesome commodities of a first-class bakery, Mr. Rehm has added a coffee parlor to his place, an innovation that is appreciated, as demonstrated in the hearty patronage that it receives.

Before coming to this country Mr. Rehm was married, in Orenburg, Russia, to Miss Margareta Brehm, who was a native of that city. Four children have been born to Mr. and Mrs. Rehm, as follows: Henry, Frederick, Lydia and Wilhelm. The family are communicants of St. John's Lutheran Church at Woodland, in the activities of which all participate. Politically Mr. Rehm is a Republican, and his fraternal affiliations are with the Modern Woodmen of the World, Royal Neighbors and Herman Sons.

ANTONE MILLER

The life which this narrative sketches began in Alsace (then a part of France, but now belonging to), Germany, June 8, 1837, and closed at Woodland, Cal., February 14, 1879. Between the two dates there was an era of energetic activity resulting in property accumulations and an honorable standing in business circles. When nineteen years of age Mr. Miller had accompanied his parents to the United States, where a heavy bereavement came two months later in the death of the father and mother in the city of New Orleans. There were six children in the family and of these Antone, Wendell, Ignatius and Joseph came to California, settling in the Sacramento valley. The three latter followed the butcher's trade. The youngest of the sons, Antone, had learned the trade of a brewer at Strassburg and had followed the same in Cincinnati, Ohio, for a few years. In 1861 he came to the coast via the Isthmus of Panama and settled in Sacramento, whence he came to Yolo county. Forming a partnership with John Shirley, he started a brewery on the farm of E. Lowe, midway between Woodland and Yolo. Two years later the plant was removed to Woodland and the Yolo brewery continued under the prosperous management of the partners. They borrowed $500 for the purchase of five acres of land at $50 per acre and $250 for the improvements, but this money they were soon able to repay. During 1868 a modern building was erected with large cellars and every facility for the prosperous continuance of the business. After the death of Mr. Miller the brewery was managed by Mr. Shirley for two years, when it was sold and the partnership dissolved. It should be stated that when they came to San Francisco Mr. Miller was the means of saving a would-be suicide in that city, the man afterward becoming a wealthy citizen.

The marriage of Antone Miller and Bridget Comer was solemnized in Sacramento April 17, 1864, Father Hugh Gallagher officiating. The Comer family originated in Hungary, but accompanied William the Conqueror to England and some of the name bore a part in the famous battle of Hastings. Eventually they settled in Ireland and built the noted castle Comer in Kilkenny. Bernard Comer, a farmer who died in Ireland, had made three trips to the new world and in one of these he came as far west as California. His wife, who like himself was a lifelong resident of Ireland, bore the maiden name of Bridget Ward and was of English ancestry on the paternal side. Among their children there was a daughter, Bridget, a native of Athlone, Ireland, and the last survivor in a family numbering eleven children. At the age of fourteen years she left Athlone and crossed the ocean with a brother to join their sister, Mary, then living in Boston. In 1864 the young girl came to California via the Nicaragua route, traveling up the Pacific on a steamer that was burned during its return trip. Two years after the death of Mr. Miller his widow removed from Woodland to a ranch two miles northwest of town and on that place she reared her children. Devoted in her allegiance to the Holy Rosary Roman Catholic Church at Woodland, she not only gave liberally to its original establishment, but also contributed generously to the building of two houses of worship, as well as a convent.

In the family of Mr. and Mrs. Miller there were seven children. Mary Elizabeth married Timothy Noonan and resides in Oakland, Mr. Noonan being connected with the San Francisco

Frank has operated the home farm for years. Antone died at the age of twenty-four years. Glory married J. C. Montgomery and resides on a ranch near Davis. Bertha is living at the old homestead. Ignatius, who served as a member of a California regiment in the Spanish-American war for four years, received an honorable discharge at the close of the war and returned to Yolo county, taking up farm pursuits at the old homestead.

JAMES RANDOLPH JACOBS

If any residents are entitled to speak with authority concerning the resources of Yolo county it is those who, born within its limits and educated within its schools, trained to a knowledge of its soil possibilities and identified constantly with its landed development, still remain within its boundaries content to pass life's afternoon amid the scenes endeared to their earliest recollections. To this class belongs J. R. Jacobs, who is proud of being a native son of the county as well as a lifelong resident thereof and a continuous operator of farm lands. He was born on a farm near Knights Landing October 23, 1856, the son of Isaac W. Jacobs, who is represented on another page in this volume. He was educated primarily in the schools of Yolo county and completed his studies in Hesperian College. Subsequently he became an assistant to his father on the ranch and later was the active manager of the home place, remaining there until he was thirty-five. He then started to rent other properties, and later took up farming and leasing tracts in different parts of the county.

It was not until 1907 that Mr. Jacobs acquired the tract of forty acres whose cultivation consumes much of his time and whose improvements bespeak his skill and thrift. The little farm lies two miles west of Woodland and has a neat residence built since the present owner acquired the property. Ten acres of the farm are in alfalfa, which furnishes hay for his dairy herd of nine milch cows. A large drove of hogs, some Poland-China and others Berkshire, brings the proprietor a substantial addition to his annual income. Ten acres of the farm are in a vineyard, which last season produced a large crop of wine grapes. Peach trees of the Orange Cling variety are in bearing, although only two years old. Almond trees also began to bear at two years, although entirely without irrigation. Indeed, it would be difficult to find any ranch as small that equals the Jacobs farm in point of production and in the annual income from the sale of the varied crops.
